MESStival

Saturday, May 21, Noon-5 pm

Kaleideum is holding a May MESStival: a messy festival combining art, science, and the music of Big Bang Boom. Families will immerse themselves in goo, gunk, and grit to create art and explore science. The best part is parents and caregivers don't have to clean up. Kids can do all the fun things that they are not allowed to do at home! From mud painting and oobleck pools to confetti cannons and foot painting, there will be plenty of ooey, gooey, slimy messes to dive into. Local artists will also be on hand to help guests create collaborative works of art using various media and techniques. Dress for mess and bring a towel! Kaleideum will provide hoses to clean up outside. The day will finish up with music — at 3 pm, Big Bang Boom — a high energy indie rock band that plays everything from covers with a twist to funky original rock music — will put on a concert in the Outdoor Science Park amphitheater. MESStival is included with membership or admission fee. Get tickets online early for half price at Kaleideum.org.

Spring Things! An Exceptional Night at the Museum (R$)

Friday, May 27, 5-8 pm

Exceptional Night at the Museum is a series of exclusive events during which children and adults with intellectual, developmental, and physical disabilities — along with their families and caregivers — can enjoy the wonders of Kaleideum. Exceptional Night events offer inclusive and adaptive programming in a less crowded museum environment. Our inaugural Exceptional Night event — Spring Things! — will celebrate all things spring. Guests can dig into spring-themed sensory bins, create flower and bee crafts, learn to code with Bee Bots, experience an animal encounter with stick bugs, and roll and stroll through our environmental park — until the sun sets, of course. Members free; non-members $5; $3 Museums for All pricing is available at the Welcome Desk the evening of the event.
